

Dear All:

Thanks to all of you the funeral service for my mother, Sunan Sae Kow, during 22 - 27 August, 2010 at Wat Tepsirin went so well and was much better than what we had imagined. My family and I are very grateful for your concern and participation.

On 31st August, Mark, my oldest brother from LA, and I accompanied my mom to Rosehills, California. The flight was smooth. We had the final funeral ritual for my mother on the 1st of September at Rosehills with our family members and their friends attending.

Both my parents are now resting in peace together and forever.

Attached are some pictures for you.

Best Regards,

Sompote Phatipatanawong
